Monthly Wednesday morning Bible Study

This group is still operating, but using Email and printed copies. This month we are starting a new series, entitled "Women of the Old Testament". We are very happy to add anyone who is interested to our distribution list, whether on Email or printed copies. Please just let us know if you would like to be included at any point. They will generally come out during the last week of every month.

This month's study is about Eve and aims to help us understand the far-reaching effects of our choices.
