7.30pm

Thank you so much to everyone who helped to make the concert last Monday go so well. Angharad had put everything in place which meant that on the day, the event ran like clockwork. Huge thanks to the Smiths and the Dunfords for feeding and hosting the singers overnight, to everyone who helped checking tickets, showing people to their seats, putting the marquee up and down, serving drinks at the bar and clearing up afterwards. It was a terrific evening which raised significant funds for the church (final details when we have them)
